Dear Mr. Dunbar:

I intended writing you
a few days since about a conversation
I had with J. R. Gill. Lakeside, Ohio.
Secretary of the Camp-meeting association.
In the midst of business I have forgotten
whether I wrote you or not.

I saw Mr. Gill & advised him to secure you to give some recitals during the Sunday School encampment, which I believe comes off in July. It might be well for you to write him on the subject. I will write to Dr. Bushfield & ask him to use his influence for you.
How much money would it require for you to attend the Spring term at Cincinnati?

It is probable that I will be in Cincinnati during the coming month. If I am well look up Shearer. I presume that I neglected to enclose $1.00. You will find it in this.

Very truly yours,
C. W. Thacker

You might write Shearer again
