THE HUMANE SOCIETY.

A Prominent Organization Effected Last Evening.

Its Constitution and By-Laws—Election of Officers.

Between one and two hundred ladies and gentlemen assembled in the hall of the Produce Exchange last evening, their object being to effect a permanent organization of the proposed Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Animals. Promptly at 8 o'clock Mr. Denison B. Smith, the temporary chairman, called the meeting to order, and after stating what had been done in connection with the movement, he called for the report of the committee on permanent organization, which was presented by its chairman, Mr. Asa A. Clark.

Mr. Clark said that the work of the committee was simply to suggest, not to dictate, and that the suggestions might be accepted, amended or rejected, as the meeting might see fit. He then presented the following constitution and by-laws:

CONSTITUTION.
ARTICLE I.—NAME.
 This society shall be called the "Toledo Humane Society."

ARTICLE II.—OBJECTS.
 The objects are to create a public sentiment in favor of enforcing the laws that now exist, or that may hereafter be enacted, for the "Prevention of Cruelty to Children and Animals," and to prosecute and punish all persons found violating such laws.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERS.
SECTION 1. The society shall consist of active, contributing and honorary members.

SEC. 2. Active members shall be those who pay to the society three dollars and upwards per annum, and shall alone be entitled to vote.

SEC. 3. Contributing members shall be those who contribute to the society any sum less than three dollars per annum.

SEC. 4. Honorary members: any person of good character and standing may become an honorary life member in paying to the society the sum of twenty-five dollars or upwards. Any person may be elected an honorary member by a majority vote of the society.

SEC. 5. Ladies shall be eligible to all offices and memberships.

SEC. 6. All members shall, after the adoption of this constitution, be chosen by a majority vote at any regular or special meeting.

SEC. 7. Any person or persons allowing their dues to remain unpaid for one year may be erased from the roll of members.

ARTICLE IV.—FISCAL YEAR.
 The fiscal year of the society shall commence on the 1st of January.

ARTICLE V.—OFFICERS.
SECTION 1.—The officers of this society shall consist of a President, five Vice Presidents, a Treasurer, Secretary, an Attorney, Board of Directors, consisting of twenty-one members, of which the officers of the society shall be ex-officio members; and not less than five thereof shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 2.—All officers shall be elected annually by ballot at the regular meeting in December, to serve during the following fiscal year, and until their successors are elected.

BY LAWS.
ARTICLE I.
 All meetings shall be held at such place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II.
 The regular meetings of this society shall be held on the first Tuesday in March, June, September and December, and five members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE III.
 No member in arrears for dues shall be allowed to vote at the election of officers.

ARTICLE IV.
 Special meetings may be called by the President, and in his absence by a Vice President, on the written request of five active members.

ARTICLE V.
 At the regular meeting in December the Board of Directors shall present a general report for the past year, and the Treasurer, Secretary and attorney shall also present reports concerning their respective departments.

ARTICLE VI.
 The treasurer shall give a bond satisfactory to the board of directors, and shall present at each regular meeting a state-

Committee were adopted as read, without amendment.

The report of the committee relative to the officers of the Society, was then presented by Mr. Clark, who said that the committee, in the discharge of its duties, simply suggested the following names:

- For President—James M. Brown.
- For Vice-Presidents—First, Denison B. Smith; second, W. T. Walker; third, Hon. Henry Kahl; fourth, Miss Carrie Mott; fifth, Mrs. E. H. Van Hise.
- For Treasurer—E. W. Lenderson.
- For Secretary—J. W. Erwin.
- For Attorney—Clarence Brown, Esq.
- For Directors—Asa A. Clark, M. S. Davis, Dr. J. G. Nolen, George W. Davis, M. J. Earhart, Dr. J. V. Newton, J. G. Mitchell, Milton Taylor, Joseph Popp, George Mack, Myron Cole, John Kaufman, George R. Hudson, Dr. E. M. Goodwin, Miss H. L. Clark, Miss Ada Ritchie, Mrs. C. A. Scofield, Miss Hattie Hall, Mrs. Joel W. Kelsey, Mrs. R. G. Bacon, Mrs. E. M. Collins.

The report of the committee as read was then adopted, and the officers declared elected.

Messrs. James Blass, T. C. Rowland, E. W. Lenderson, W. T. Walker and S. C. Scheuck were then appointed a committee to circulate membership books among the audience and solicit names. While this was being done Mr. Clark was called upon, and gave a brief history of the Cincinnati society, with which he was connected for a number of years, and in so doing he cited numerous interesting cases.

Mr. C. H. Buck was called upon, and gave assurance that his heart was in the work, and that he might be counted upon when there was work to do, but not for speech-making.

Clarence Brown, Esq., referring to the absence from the city of the President-elect of the society, James M. Brown, Esq., said that the committee were aware of the fact that he had permitted his name to be presented only after great solicitation. He had been authorized by Mr. Brown to say that should the meeting ratify the report of the committee, he would accept the office and give the society his best efforts.

The meeting then adjourned. The work of the canvassing committee showed that forty-five active and several contributing members had been secured; the subscriptions aggregating about $175.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

"THE LITTLE MAJOR."

This fine drama will close this evening those who have not yet witnessed it do not fail to go. It has a stirring plot, a well sprinkled with dramatic sentiment now runs smoothly throughout, and beautiful tableaux alone are worth the admission.

"SAM'L OF SENEC."

This celebrated comedy drama will be seen Friday and Saturday evenings. It is too well known to require special mention. Mr. Curtis portrays the character Sam'l in a manner that is at once original and accurate. Sam'l is a young Jew, he shrewd, alternately economical and generous who rises from the position of penning-up peddler, through the various grades of stock clerk, traveling salesman, confidential agent of a wealthy house, he becomes the proprietor of his own establishment. Curtis has succeeded in getting the peculiarities of the Polish Jew down to a fine point, and take it all in all it makes enjoyable evening's entertainment.

"A MOUNTAIN FINE."

This thrilling drama will be presented at the Opera House, with Miss Laura E. D. as the star, next Monday and Tuesday evenings. The Davenport (Iowa) Gazette says: "There was another large audience to witness the second performance of 'A Mountain Fine' last evening, and as before, the reaction was universal. The play is worth the highest praise. It is perfectly chaste, breaks new ground in the plot, the fabric is a story, and its development is the work of a master hand. In fact, it is an excellent play, set down with as much as any play. The company is one of the strongest on the road."

DAVID W. PORTER.

His Remains are Taken to Perryburg.

The 10:40 train on the D. & M. Tuesday carried to Perryburg a company of friends having in charge the remains of David W. Porter, one of our telegraph operators who served for years at the Union depot and the Central office of the Western Union. He died of consumption on day last at the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. John Buck, on Morris street, the age of 28 years.

He was laid in Fort Meigs cemetery the side of his wife, who four years died of the same disease and was buried over the same ground to Perryburg. He was the last of his father's family; one sister living in Cincinnati. In September, 1882, he was attacked with hemorrhage of the lungs and immediately went West, to Colorado, Utah, etc.

The change was not beneficial, and a few months he came back to die. He lingered for months, suffering intensely of the time. During this time he was tenderly cared for by friends, among them his brother operators of the city. The latter were constant in their attentions and kindness. They spared no time and pains to make the sufferer comfortable. These efforts did not cease until he was buried at Perryburg, a delegation of telegraph operators going down to attend the funeral.

Rev. T. L. Wiltsee, of this city, officiated at the funeral. He had visited Mr. Porter during his sickness, and baptized him, took him into the church while he was sick in bed. Mr. and Mrs. John Bue were home he died, tender their sincere thanks to the friends who assisted them in the hour of their affliction bereavement, and especially to the telegraph operators of the city.

CLARK-SKIDMORE.

Wedding Held King Merrily on the East Side.

The happy event that was celebrated yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the residence of Mr. Cassius A. Clark, of Warren, Ohio, and Miss Nettie Belle Skidmore of East Toledo, was one of more than ordinary social interest. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. Schaff, assisted by Rev. A. M. Wheeler, at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride and groom descended the stairs to the sweet strain of a wedding march. The happy couple was preceded by Grace Baymer, Mamie L. Bell, George Clay, and Harry Potter, little girls strewing flowers in front of the happy pair, who took position beneath an evergreen arch, from which was suspended a white dove, the parlor being handsomely decorated.
